

CONTENTS

Overview	1
This Book in Brief	1
Yet Again?	4
MANAGEMENT? or management?	5
A Few Cautions	6

PART I: MYTHS

1. MYTH #1	11
We have a system of health care.
2. MYTH #2	15
The system of health care is failing.
Suffering from Success	16
More for Less?	18
3. MYTH #3	23
Health care institutions, not to mention the whole system, can be fixed with more heroic leadership.
The Position of Heroic Leadership	24
The Person as Heroic Leader	27
The Quest for a Regular Leader	27

iii

bergText.indd 3

2

Content s

4. MYTH #4	29
The health care system can be fixed with more administrative engineering.
Fads, Fallacies, and Foolishness	30
Re-engineering the Health Care Factory	32
When in Doubt, Reorganize	34
Use Pretend Markets When You Can't Get Away with Real Ones	40
Merge Like Mad	42
The Myth of Scale	43
Keeping the Baby	49
5. MYTH #5	51
The health care system can be fixed with more categorizing and commodifying to facilitate more calculating.
Categorization for Commodification for Calculation	52
Beyond, Across, and Beneath the Categories	53
Some Myths of Measurement	61
Analyst, Analyze Thyself	72
6. MYTH #6	75
The health care system can be fixed with increased competition.
Is American Competition the Model?	75
Porter and Teisberg on the "Right Kind" of Competition	78
Does Competition Necessarily Foster Innovation?	80
Is This Really About Competition?	83
The Cost of Competition	84
Cooperation, Not Individualization	85

iv

Content s

7. MYTH #7	87
Health care organizations can be fixed by managing them more like businesses.
Herzlinger on this Business of Health Care	88
When Being a Business Is Bad for our Health Care	90
When Acting Like a Business is hardly Better	92
Health Care as a Calling	94
Summing Up the Fixes	96
8. MYTHS #8 AND #9	99
Overall, health care is rightly left to the private sector, for the sake of efficiency and choice. Overall, health care is rightly controlled by the public sector, for the sake of equality and economy.
The Great Divide?	100
Beyond Crude and Crass	102
Welcome to the Plural Sector for the Sake of Quality and Engagement	103
Plural Ownership and the Commons	105
Plural, Public, or Private?	108
Engagement and Communityship in the Plural Sector	110
Disengagement in the Plural Sector	112

PART II: ORGANIZING

9. Differentiating	117
The Specialized Players of Health Care	117
The Quadrants of Health Care	119
The Practices of Health Care	122
10. Separating	127
Curtains across the Practices	127

v

Content s

Sheets over the Patients	139
Walls and Floors between the Administrators	142
11. Integrating	145
Mind the Gaps	145
The Mechanisms of Coordination	150
Forms of Organizing	152

PART III: REFRAMING

12. REFRAMING MANAGEMENT	169
As distributed beyond the “top”
13. REFRAMING STRATEGY	173
As venturing, not planning
14. REFRAMING ORGANIZATION	181
As collaboration transcending competition, culture transcending control, communityship transcending leadership

Enough of the Separations	181
Enough of the Controls	182
Enough of the Obsession with Leadership	182
Enough of all that Competition	184
Toward Collaboration	184
Toward Communityship	185
Culture for Collaboration and Communityship	188

15. REFRAMING THE PRACTICE OF MANAGING	189
As caring before curing
Leadership Embedded in Management	189
Heroic Leadership or Engaging Management?	192
Choosing the Flawed Manager	195

vi

bergText.indd 6

2

Content s

Co-management	196
Who Should Manage Health Care?	198
16. REFRAMING SCALE	205
As human beyond economic
17. REFRAMING OWNERSHIP	207
As plural and common alongside public and private
Roles for the Private Sector	208
Roles for the Public Sector	209
Roles for the Plural Sector	210
18. REFRAMING HEALTH CARE OVERALL	213
As a system beyond its parts
Promoting a Systems Perspective	214
Downloading the Whole of Health Care into each of its parts	220
Connecting the parts	226
Attaining Cooperative Autonomy	233
Finally	235
References	236
Index	249
The Author and the Others	260
About the Author	260
About the People behind the Author	261

vii

bergText.indd 7

2

Content s

EXHIBITS

BOXES
Health Promotion over the Cliff	12
Re-engineering an Orchestra	33
The Worst Reorganization Ever?	37
"It's not easy, you know"	55

Counting Livers	67
Medicine Motivated	95
Coup d'état in Quebec	104
The Crucial Commons in Health Care	106
Truth?	132
Medical Bullying	135
Samples of 0, 1, 2, and 3, from Medicine and Me	137
The Military Metaphor of Modern Medicine	140
Nothing Like a Bit of Crude Encouragement	148
Inducing the Cause of Cholera	177
The Epidemic of Managing without Soul	191
Rules for being a Heroic Leader	193
Heroic Leaders or Engaged Managers	194
A Forum for Developing the Managers of Health Care	200
A Constituency for Cause	215
Reframing the Vocabulary of Health Care	219
Bridging Payers with Providers	229
FIGURES
Figure 1a An Organization	35
Figure 1b A Reorganization?	36
Figure 2 Quadrants in Health Care: Four Worlds in the Acute Institution	120
Figure 3 Four Worlds in Society at Large	121
Figure 4 A Map of Wellness and Illness	123
Figure 5 The Curtains of Health Care	128
Figure 6 The Gaps in Managing Health Care	146
Figure 7 Asymmetry in Hospital Management	197
Figure 8 Seeing the Parts around the Whole	222